Title: Method and Compositions for the Treatment and Prevention of Staphylococcus Aureus Infections

Filed: April 19, 2001

Our docket no.: BVD-1CIP

Dear Sir/Madam:

We have tried calling and e-mailing the USPTO to resolve the following problem and have been unsuccessful. We are in hopes that this letter will contain enough information for you to research the matter and report back to us with information regarding the status of this matter.

We have tried to search the USPTO website to obtain the status on the above-captioned patent. However, the patent is not associated with our customer number 020808, and it should be. Enclosed herein please find a substitute power of attorney signed by the inventor, appointing our firm with powers to prosecute and transact all business in the USPTO. The power of attorney was filed with the USPTO on January 22, 2002.

Please check the status of the subject patent application and make any necessary changes to the matter to associate it with our customer number 020808. We would appreciate your calling us with whatever you discover in your investigation into this matter.

Thank you for your kind assistance.

Very truly yours,
Brown & Michaels, PC
